

Press Release

Public Meeting:

Turning a Wrong into a Right

Voter Disenfranchisement--The Problem, The Impact, The Solution

When:

Wednesday, April 27, 7 p.m.

Where:

Southshore Center

5735 Country Club Road, Shorewood, MN 55331

What:

Join us for a conversation about restoring the vote for ex-offenders living in our communities and maximizing their ability to contribute to society.

Forum Participants:

Sarah Walker, Government Affairs Consultant at Hill Capitol Strategies, formerly Chief Operating Officer at 180 Degrees, founder of the Minnesota Second Chance Coalition, President of the Coalition for Impartial Judiciary.

Jason Sole, Minneapolis NAACP criminal justice reform chair, criminal justice educator at Metropolitan State University and Hamline University, author of From Prison to Ph.D.: Memoir of Hope, Resilience and Second Chances.

Donald Allen, small business owner, nonprofit developer, grant writer, educator (K-12), nationally published conservative blogger and BlogTalkRadio co-host. In 2013, he ran for chairman of the Minnesota GOP.

Juliet Nail, Minnesota chair of Blue Republican - a non-partisan group of peace and freedom activists and citizen lobbyists. She is currently the public policy director for the Libertarian Party of Minnesota.

Susan Sheridan Tucker, League of Women Voters Executive Director, has worked in community building, strategic planning and nonprofit change management and currently serves as LWVMN's representative to the RESTORE THE VOTE Coalition.

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsors:

League of Women Voters South Tonka

League of Women Voters Eastern Carver County

Contact Information:

League of Women Voters South Tonka

Co-Presidents:

Kay Erickson, 952-474-7324

Sue Hnastchenko, 952-239-0395